

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF JOURNALISM & NEW MEDIA
A PROJECT OF THE BS&G FOUNDATION

Application Form

Admission procedure consists of:

1. Completion and submission of application form
2. Aptitude test and personal interview
3. Notification and acceptance of admission

Completion and submission of application form:

Completed application form must reach IIJNM by no later than June 30, 2017. Late applicants may submit completed form and supporting documents after this date, which may be considered for admission if vacancies are still available. Please ensure all answers are written (or printed legibly) and the form is signed and dated.

Alternately, applicants may fill an online application form available on the home page of www.iijnm.org.

Note: Early applicants may submit their applications prior to March 31, 2017 for consideration. We encourage submitting applications early to assure quick completion of the admission process to the limited number of seats (see Fees & Payments--www.iijnm.org/admissions-fees.html--for concession in fees given to early applicants). Those awaiting college examination results may be given conditional admission.

The following must be submitted to the Admissions Committee:

1. Completed application form.
2. Photocopy of official transcripts of academic records from undergraduate, graduate and/or professional institutions attended (when available). Those who are awaiting results of final examination may apply now, and copy of transcripts may be mailed when they become available.
3. Application essay: Describe a recent event that has received major national or international attention, how the news impacted you, and why you wish to pursue a career in journalism. (Between 650 and 750 words.)
4. The Rs. 1,000 application-processing fee by bank draft or pay order (payable at Bangalore) and drawn in favour of "IIJNM Bangalore."
5. Supporting material (if any) such as writing samples (published), record of achievements, etc.

Applications must be sent to:
