

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF JOURNALISM & NEW MEDIA
A PROJECT OF THE BS&G FOUNDATION

Admission procedure consists of:

1. Completion and submission of application form
2. Aptitude test, counselling and personal interview
3. Notification and acceptance of admission

Deadline for completion and submission of Application Form:

Completed application form must reach IIJNM by no later than May 10, 2018. But late applicants may submit completed form and supporting documents after this date, which may be considered for admission only if vacancies are still available.

Note: Early applications must be submitted prior to March 31, 2018 for consideration. We encourage submitting applications early to assure quick completion of the admission process to the limited number of seats. Those awaiting college examination results may be given conditional admission.

Checklist of Application:

All applicants must submit online or mail the following to the Admissions Committee at the address given below:

1. Completed application form.
2. Photocopy of official transcripts of academic records from undergraduate, graduate and/or professional institutions attended (when available). Those awaiting final examination results may submit copy of the transcripts of previous examination results (for eg. the fifth semester marks sheet). Final examination results may be submitted when they become available.
3. Application essay: Describe a recent event that has received major national or international attention, and how it affected you (between 600 and 750 words).
4. The Rs. 1,000 application-processing fee by credit card or bank draft or pay order (payable at Bangalore) and drawn in favour of "IIJNM Bangalore."
5. Supporting material (if any) such as writing samples (published), record of achievements, etc.

Applications must be sent to:
